Overview

Carolyn's practice emphasizes all aspects of insurance defense. She has more than 25 years of experience defending Utah health care providers against claims of medical malpractice and regularly advises two of the region's largest hospital networks on legal and risk management issues. Carolyn also has defended clients against claims involving construction defect and job site injury, civil rights and bad faith.

Carolyn served as Associate Editor of the Journal of Public Law and as a Law Clerk for the Honorable Judith M. Billings of the Utah Court of Appeals from 1992 to 1994.
