

Litchfield Cavo Co-Sponsors South Asian Bar Association's Annual Gala

September 18, 2017

Litchfield Cavo is a proud co-sponsor of the South Asian Bar Association of Greater Boston's Annual Gala on November 15, 2018. The event celebrates the successes of SABA GB members and recognizes the organization's progress among peers and colleagues from across the legal community.

Litchfield Cavo's Boston area attorney Gayatri Deodhar is a member of the Board of Directors for the South Asian Bar Association of Greater Boston, and serves as a co-chair of the organization's Mentorship Committee. Gayatri volunteers her time to foster relations between law students and local attorneys and organize cultivation events.

SABA GB aims to provide a forum for professional networking and development, legal scholarship and education, and advocacy and community involvement for attorneys and law students of South Asian heritage in the Greater Boston area. For more information on SABA GB and the Annual Gala, please visit their website.
