

Charles E. Vermette, Jr., Partner

Vermette@LitchfieldCavo.com

Overview

Chip joined Litchfield Cavo LLP in 2001. His practice focuses on defending insurance companies, their insureds and self-insured corporations in various types of complex litigation. His representative cases include wrongful death and catastrophic personal injury, education, financial and religious institution liability, construction accidents and defects, legal and real estate malpractice, and auto/trucking accidents.

Chip serves on the defense liaison committee for the Connecticut lead paint litigation and has served as defense liaison counsel for the Connecticut asbestos litigation.

Experience

- Tuccio Development, Inc. v. Neumann, 114 Conn.App. 123, 968 A.2d 956 (Conn.App., 2009)
- Acadia Ins. Co. v. American Crushing & Recycling, LLC, 475 F.Supp.2d 168 (D.Conn., 2007)
- Tiso v. Blumenthal, 371 F.Supp.2d 135 (D.Conn., 2005)

Education

- Boston College Law School, JD, 1989
- George Washington University, BA, 1986, with distinction

Contact

82 Hopmeadow Street
Suite 210
Simsbury, CT 06089

T: 860.413.2707
F: 860.413.2801

Practices

Construction Liability
Executive Liability
Financial Institutions
Professional Liability:
Non-Medical
Trucking Liability

Admissions

- Connecticut
- United States District Court: District of Connecticut

Languages

- English

Professional Memberships

- Hartford County Bar Association
- Connecticut Defense Lawyers Association
- Council on Litigation Management