

Daniel A. Baylson, Counsel

Baylson@LitchfieldCavo.com

Overview

Dan's primary practice areas encompass complex commercial litigation matters, including employment discrimination, residential and commercial construction defects, products liability, insurance coverage analyses and contractual liability and general negligence.

He defends a range of clients, from individuals and local businesses to national and international companies. He successfully defended insured entities and individuals, insurers and self-insured nonprofit and for-profit companies in state and federal courts, before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and in mediation and arbitration forums.

Dan also has extensive experience with electronic document review using e-discovery software including, but not limited to, Concordance, Summation and custom web-based platforms.
